

Sportsmanship Award $400.00

Purpose: To encourage the development of good sportsmanship, strong character, and leadership, as a role model for fellow skaters.

The Southern Eastern Great Lakes Figure Skating Council (SEGL) awards a $400.00 Scholarship to the council member best exhibiting the following qualities:

Leadership	Sportsmanship
Industrious	Academic performance
Concern for others	Perseverance
Spirit	Coachability

Each SEGL member club may submit candidates for consideration. We encourage that you notify all your club skaters and give them the information. The selected candidate will be notified before the SEGL Competition and announced at the SEGL Annual Meeting, posted on website and facebook page. The Awards presentation will take place Saturday evening at the close of events or whenever is convenient for skater and SEGL committee.

Application Procedure

1. A club representative must submit an individual letter describing the candidate and how they demonstrate the qualities stated above.
2. Include a letter of recommendation from the skater's coach.
3. The skater is to submit an essay on what skating means to him/her.
4. Complete questionnaire, signed by parent or guardian.
5. All applications must be in by January 1.

Criteria

1. Applicant must be a current registered USFS member of a SEGL member club in good standing.
2. Applicant is not required to have competed in SEGL Invitational Competition. However, previous participation may weigh heavily in the selection process.
